

Dear All,

The Board is delighted to invite all Members and Observers to the ILAS Autumn Conference in

Palma de Mallorca, Spain on Thursday 8 November 2018 and Friday 9 November 2018.

This time DMS Consulting has kindly offered to host the second conference of ILAS e.V.

The conference will take place at the Puro Hotel in Palma Old Town.
<https://www.purohotel.com/en/>.

We attach a copy of each of the following:

- Registration form
- Conference agenda (not yet final);

An information sheet containing details of the conference venue, restaurants and hotel will follow in due course.

We live in times of great changes, trade conflicts, Brexit as well as political and economic uncertainties in several European countries. Every change is a means to stability. But every change is also an opportunity. In the ILAS Autumn Conference we shall draw our attention to the opportunities of ILAS and its members with a special focus on the investment opportunities in each country.

We are also looking forward to meet new observer firms in Mallorca. The Board is working hard to recruit new members in several jurisdictions, always with the principle of maintaining a high-quality level. Proposals and recommendations for potential new members, regions or professions are always welcome.

1. Costs of Conference and Discounts

As in previous conferences, there will be a single fee of 250.00 EUR per person payable to ILAS for attending the conference. Where delegates book more than one person to attend the conference, the fee payable for each delegate will be 225.00 EUR. The attendance fee will include dinner on Thursday, 8 November 2018, attendance at the conference including coffee breaks during the conference and lunch as well as dinner on Friday, 9 November 2018.

There will be an early bird discount of 10 % of the single attendance fee of 250.00 EUR in relation to any booking made prior to 31 August 2018 provided that payment is also received in full by that date.

By way of example, an ILAS member who sends 3 delegates to the conference will have to pay a total of 675.00 EUR (being three times 225.00 EUR). If that ILAS member makes their booking and pays the conference fee until Friday, 31 August 2018, then they will receive a discount of 10 % of the single attendance fee of 250.00 EUR per attendee (in the example above this would be three times 25.00 EUR) and will only have to pay a total of 600.00 EUR.

The last day for booking and paying for your attendance at the conference will be Sunday, 8 October 2018.

Payments have to be made directly to ILAS e.V. according to the details in the attached registration form. Payments should be made by bank transfer.

2. Accommodation

As usual, delegates will be responsible for booking their own accommodation for the Conference.

The hosts will have a 10% discount in PURO HOTEL. Please book your room entering in the following link: <https://www.purohotel.com/en/reserve/> and enter the following PROMOCODE: 180730009Mcrul.
